The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

In a few months I will be leaving the Select Committee on Intelligence in accordance with the eight-year limit on membership under Senate Resolution No. 400 (1976), which established the Committee. My term on the Select Committee has represented years of great personal challenge for me.

When I was appointed to the Committee in May, 1976 and asked to serve as its first Chairman, I came upon the scene completely uninitiated in the arcane field of intelligence. I was asked to develop a Committee that would effectively discharge the functions of legislative oversight of the U.S. Intelligence Community that had been proposed by the Senate in its resolution establishing the Select Committee and its earlier investigation of our government's intelligence activities. I hope that through my actions during my time on the Committee I have not in any way weakened the intelligence gathering efforts of the U.S. government, which are so critical to our national security.

As I leave the Intelligence Committee, I would very much like to have with me in my office a few mementos to remind me of my service. Perhaps your organization has some seal, flag or other item that would assist me in recalling the time I have spent on intelligence matters. I will be happy to defray any costs for such items.

I wish you and your organization every success in our mutual endeavor to strengthen the intelligence capabilities of our Nation in defense of our national security and furtherance of our foreign policy.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
